Directions (21-23) Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time, there was a beautiful forest. There lived two trees, named Chintu and Pintu, who were brothers. Chintu and Pintu had many friends like the rabbit, the group of monkeys, the family of birds, Bunky-the bear and the wise old wolf.

One day, Pintu saw a woodcutter coming toward the forest. He asked everyone to run but no one ran. They said, "You give us food, shelter and fresh air to breathe. How can we leave you in danger and go?" Chintu and Pintu thanked them and said, "Okay, you all hide behind us". So, everyone hid inside or behind the tree.

The woodcutter was very confused because there were many trees to cut. Suddenly he saw Chintu and Pintu and decided to cut them. The wise old wolf had already told his plan to animals. When the woodcutter came near the trees, the group of monkeys jumped on him. Then, the family of birds started pecking him, then the rabbit and his brothers started jumping around him and Bunky, the bear started roaring. In the mean time, the wise old wolf ran to the lion king. He told the king what he had to do. The king roared and the woodcutter ran for his life.
